And the Knights and Burgeses of Northumberland, Wales, Lancashire and Cumberland; and the Burgeses of Canterbury.

This

THis Committee is to take into their consideration, the Petition of the Inhabitants of Huyendam in the County of Buckingham, and all other Petitioners of that nature; and also to consider how there may be preaching Ministers set up where there are none, and how those preaching Ministers may be maintained, where there is no maintenance; and when they are in, how they may be kept and maintained, and to receive all other Petitions of the like nature.

And it is further ordered, That the Committee shall have power to send for Parties, Witnesses, Writings, and Records, that may conduce to the business in question before them. This was a Sub-committee made by the grand Committee for Religion. And it is this day ordered, that this Committee shall from the house have the like power it formerly had, and consider and enquire of the true ground, and causes of the great scarcity of preaching Ministers, throughout the whole Kingdome. And to consider of some way for removing of scandalous Ministers, and putting others in their places.

And it is further ordered, that all the Knights, and Burgeses for every County be required from this house, both upon their owne knowledge, and upon information from the severall Counties where they dwell, within sixe weeks to informe this house of the state and conditions of their Counties concerning preaching ministers, and whence it ariseth there is such a scarcity of them throughout the Kingdome.

It is earnestly desired, and expected by the Parliament, that all ingenious persons in every County of the Kingdome, will be very active to improve the present opportunity, by giving a true information of all the Parishes in their severall Counties.

First

First where there are men of more then one benefice , and what such mens Revenues are reputed to be.

Secondly, where there is no maintenance, or too little maintenance for a preaching minister.

Thirdly, Where there is no preaching, or seldome preaching.

Fourthly, Where there are persecuting, innovating, or scandalous Ministers, that they may be put out , and order taken for better to be put in their places.

A Committee is chosen purposely to receive Petitions , and Informations of this nature , and to take speciall care about so weighty a busines. The Committee desires informations from all parties, if it be possible within this moneth, as appeareth by the order given out by the Parliament, the nineteenth of this instant Decemb. 1640.
